God of Love, in this quiet moment, we rest in Your presence. Calm our hearts, steady our breath, and make room within us for Christ's coming. Let Your Love take root in our silence and shine through us into the world. Amen.

God of hope and promise: As we bring you our tithes and offerings today, many of us are feeling discouraged and searching for our path. We look for your sign, your son—not just as a reminder of history, but as a fresh direction, a beautiful revolution of love that begins in our hearts. May a resurrection of compassion awaken us, helping us look beyond ourselves and the endless desire for more that never truly satisfies. Guide us with your signs today, as we journey once again toward Bethlehem.

We celebrate your love, God of life, through these gifts and in the everyday lives we live, which enable us to share them. We sincerely offer all we have and humbly ask you to bless these symbols of our very selves, so that the world may receive your greatest gift of love in the Christ Child born to us each year. Amen.
